The build-out of the new center begins this week with an anticipated opening date of January 1, 2009.

"We are excited about our second alliance with a leading advocate for patients living with HIV/AIDS and look forward to expanding our services in the San Francisco communities where they are most needed."

"For almost 20 years, Under One Roof has sought out ways to support people living with HIV/AIDS," said Under One Roof's Board Chair, Gregory Wick. "The Community Resource Center gives us another, original way to fulfill that same mission."
